Honorable William J. Casey Director of Central Intelligence Washington, D. C. 20305

Dear Mr. Casey

Please accept my appreciation for your support of the Joint Strategic Connectivity Staff (JSCS) during my tenure as its director. Through this support, your staff has made outstanding contributions to the improvement of the nation's strategic command, control, and communications. In fact, the direct interchange between JSCS, the unified and specified commands, and defense agencies is among the most fundamental reasons for this staff's success.

Your representative to JSCS, has been a linchpin in this process. His intimate knowledge of the CIA mission and requirements, coupled with his superb professionalism, were instrumental in developing and maintaining a most fruitful relationship. His accomplishments in this role reflect very favorably upon your staff.

Much has been accomplished to improve our strategic C3, but much remains to be done. Your support of JSCS shows that you share my concerns in this area, and I am confident that the commands and defense agencies, as a team, can successfully continue to focus on, and solve, these critical issues.

Sincerely

B. L. DAVIS General, USAF
